Who Are You?

Is “who” you are related to your gender, occupation, nationality, religion, ethnic grouping, or the race you belong to? Which of these are you born with? How many of them can remain your permanent and unchangeable identity?

Today, many people even go through procedures to change their gender. With this, you will realize that we are truly not many of the things we identify ourselves with. We are not here to eat, mate, pee, pooh, sleep and die. Indeed, when we consider the amazing ways in which life works to make our lives possible, we must be here for something much more! Truly, we are spirit-beings possessing spiritual qualities like love, joy, peace, intelligence and the like, which our human experience enables us to manifest in ways that can be cognizable or known, but not through the senses. All the things we identify ourselves with are only vehicles for the expression of the spirit-beings that we are. Knowing this and living it, is what will make our lives meaningful. Ethereal Mission empowers you with this knowledge for your evolution. You must be conscious of the reason for your being. Otherwise, you will be walking dead.

THE CORE AND ULTIMATE PURPOSE OF LIFE

The core philosophy that every Ethereal, as well as every true seeker, needs to awaken to is that:

We are units of Life, here on Earth to evolve, and be in service to Life, for the promotion of Life.

Within this philosophy, you can discover the grand purpose of Life, which is to promote itself. And it does this through the evolution of its constituent units. We humans as units of Life are, therefore, also to evolve to advance Life's overarching agenda of self-promotion.

Every unit of Life is within a yet larger unit whose grand purpose it must work to fulfil. In the human body, cells function to sustain a tissue. Tissues work to fulfil the purpose of organs and organs function as unit of systems to fulfil the purpose of those systems like the digestive system or respiratory system.

On a grand scale, every planet belongs to a solar system, which in turn belongs to a galactic system and possibly, yet larger systems all the way to the body of the cosmos, a living presence in which we live, move and have our being, and which we call God. We are here as units of the cosmos, to fulfil a cosmic purpose. As inhabitants of the planet Earth, we are interdependent units that are all extensions of one another, belonging to one another, here to give life and service to one another in order to promote Life on Earth.

Everything in life is promoting itself to serve other lives. A grain of corn in the ground becomes maize for use as food by animals and humans; and so is every fruit bearing tree and other plants.

We are emergent entities. We emerged from Life like the wave emerges out of the ocean.

We were not created and put here on earth. Rather we emerged from Life and we are enriched with all of its abilities. If we can have an idea of what we emerged from, then we can realise that we are composed of all its attributes. We emerged from the very material of this universe and its very nature must be our nature. Its creativity, love and intelligence are indeed part and parcel of our being. When we recall what we have emerged from, then we would feel its richness as ours.

YOUR SPIRITUAL CONSTITUTION & YOUR PURPOSE IN LIFE

You are constituted of the same material as the spiritual world you emerged from. This is a world of infinite Creative Love Intelligence at work, and so are you.

To start you on your purpose-journey, ask yourself, “What is the greatest good that I believe must happen to humanity and to life?” However frightening the answer may be, know that you are here to make it happen. You are a custodian of all that you have - including your intelligence, love and creative abilities and your properties, health and wealth – and one day, all you have will be given away. While you have life, you are to employ all your resources to do the greatest good that you believe in, and encapsulate it to outlive you as your cosmic legacy.

To know your purpose, you will have to know who and what you are as spirit being. You are not a sculptured moving machine. You are spirit using this human body to accomplish your purpose within your apportioned lifetime and exit through death. You must develop a high sense of urgency to fulfil your purpose; tomorrow may be too late.

You are here to evolve for the promotion of Life.

Knowing this simple but great truth, places the Ethereal on the right footing in Life.

You are a unit of life, here to involve and be in service to life, for the promotion of life. You are a cosmic seed, planted on Earth to grow to promote life. Your inner resources of Intelligence, Creativity and Love are all to be used to promote life; and as an immortal spirit, the good you promote should outlive you as your legacy.

Etherean Mission provides you with the appropriate spiritual tools to find your unique purpose within the grand purpose of life. Our materials on Essential Life Education will help you discover your purpose.

The Mission Teaches:

- ① The overall purpose of life.
- ② Your unique purpose in the overall purpose in life.
- ③ The necessary spiritual tools for the realization of your purpose in life.

If you agree to the above, then, you have a calling, not only to learn and evolve for the promotion of life; but also to reach out to the world. Your soul grows proportionally to the growth of the good that you are in others. With the awareness of this great truth, you may declare:

I am here to evolve for the promotion of Life. I did not bring myself here on Earth;

I cannot afford not to be here on Earth and cannot resist exiting from here; I am the Cosmic Idea of the Creative Love Intelligent Universe that must happen and is happening. I rise up and show up to speak my voice for the evolutions and promotion of life; and the Cosmos heals through me.

THE GOD QUESTION

At the heart of every religion is the God subject. To know and worship God is the reason you go to church. Different ideas of what God is, has created different religions, sects and cults. Etherean Mission has come to teach the Universal God that all people can relate to; and this God is known through Nature. It is in the very body of Nature and expresses through Nature as laws and principles.

This is the Etherean Knowledge of God:

- God is not a person; it is not a humanlike 'sky-king' who solicits our worship and praises in return for doing some good to us. Such a concept is idolatry.
- God is the Creative Love Intelligence that constitutes the very substance of Life and Nature that embraces the ever-expanding universe. Life or Nature is God in expression. You are a being of Nature; you eat, mate, pee, pooh and function according to Nature's principles and coding.

- To know God, you must know It through Nature that was here before your first parents and made it possible for you to be here.

Must Watch Video Resource:

You must watch 'Awesome God' and 'Awesome God Reloaded.' They will blow and expand your mind about God and feed your soul with truth. Watch these at least 4 times every year.

WORSHIPING GOD

Those who worship God imagining him to be somewhere up in the sky, seek to win his favour with pleadings, praises and austere penances. A God who can yield to human persuasions would be no better than the humans who indulge him. Worship, to the Etherean, is the expression of the qualities of God. To worship God, therefore, means to identify how you are constituted of divine qualities of God, such as kindness, care, understanding, patience, teacher, counsellor, and creativity among others; to meditate on them and call forth their expansion to bless life and honour our creator. What expresses God honours God. When we sing in church it is not to flatter God but to recognize the possibilities of Life and expand our God values. God is Life and Life is God. Worship is the way of life that glorifies God.
